

Cross off the locations identified by the clues until only one remains!

Bring your completed map to one of our coffee mornings for free drinks and cake.

Goadby Marwood Treasure Hunt

Get ready for an amazing adventure around the beautiful village of Goadby Marwood! Grab your explorer's hat and your special treasure map, because a trail of cunning clues is waiting for you. As you wander through the winding lanes, past old stone cottages and leafy paddocks you'll need to listen carefully to secret audio hints and keep your eyes peeled for tricky visual clues hidden in surprising places. Tick off each discovery location on your map and see if you can piece together the puzzle that leads to the location of the hidden treasure. Are you clever and brave enough to find it? The adventure begins now!

As you follow the trail, you'll also meet some amazing characters from Goadby Marwood's past! Discover the stories of clever inventors, brave soldiers, and even a daring spy who once caused quite a stir! Each clue will reveal a little more about the people who lived here long ago — where they lived, what they did, and maybe even a few of their secrets. Who knows? One or two of them might even give you a hint to help you find the treasure!

Grab a map and follow the Heritage Trail route to discover the hidden clues.

1

The City of Dreaming Spires where Edmund Cartwright studied. Know where it is?

When you find a clue, cross the matching location off your map until only one remains.

8

What was the name of the quarry where Gordon Spence drove the last steam loco.

9

What had young Teddy been trying to catch when he tragically drowned.

10

Where can you see many of the exciting artifacts discovered at the Roman villa?

2

What vital piece of his anatomy did St Denys carry to Montmartre?

Our beautiful church is always open—why not pop inside and take a look around? You may find a clue!

3

He died on 1st November 1763—but what was his first name?

11

This nearby cottage will give you a clue that will erase another empty location on the map.

12

What was the name of Walter Cassey's hard-working wife?

13

Albert Essery was a brave soldier of WWI—name the battle in which he was killed?

4

The cruel blade of a knife sealed George Villier's fate. Where was he assassinated?

5

Where did the battling marquis accidentally misplace his hat and wig?

14

We have lots going on in the village—stop by the notice boards for an update and maybe a clue.

15

Can you see the unusual artifact on the cottage wall opposite? What is it?

What was the name of Cathy's teacher when she attended Goadby School?

6

Miss Sheriffe lived in Goadby all her long life—how was she affectionally known by villagers?

7

What was the Roman name of the West Midlands town where ancient Romano-Britons mined salt?

There are no pavements on Towns Lane so take care and watch out for traffic!

Well done!

You've completed the trail—did you solve all the clues and find the location of the treasure? Bring your completed map to one of our coffee mornings for free drinks and cake. Delicious!

